The Quarterly Governance Review Agenda

FREE asset	Tier 0	AI GOVERNANCE CHAIN™

The cadence that keeps governance alive after launch. Governance is not a project that ends; it is a rhythm that continues.

The WHY

Most governance efforts decay after the initial push. A fixed quarterly review is the single habit that keeps controls current, surfaces drift, and keeps leadership engaged.

The 60-minute agenda

1. 1. Inventory check (10 min)

- - New AI systems since last quarter? Any added to the register?
- - Any systems retired?

1. 2. Risk review (15 min)

- - Any tier reclassifications? New high-risk systems?
- - Any new regulatory changes affecting us?

1. 3. Health score (10 min)

- - Re-run the AI Governance Health Score. Up or down from last quarter?
- - Which axis is weakest now (Coverage, Control, Documentation, Monitoring)?

1. 4. Incidents and near-misses (10 min)

- - What happened, what did we learn, what changed as a result?

1. 5. Actions and owners (15 min)

- - Top three actions for next quarter, each with a named owner and a date.

Who attends

The accountable executive (CAIO or sponsor), the governance lead, and system owners. Keep it small and decision-focused.

Where free ends and paid begins

- - FREE (what and why): this agenda and the quarterly cadence.
- - PAID (recurring): facilitated reviews, benchmarking against peers, and the running health-score dashboard in The Governance Circle membership (Tier D).
